

LUBANZI

WINE FOR THE NEW WORLD, FROM THE WORLD'S OLDEST SOIL

ABOUT US

Born in Cape Town & named for a wandering dog, Lubanzi was created by two young travelers as a collaborative social enterprise that values community, partnerships, and taking the path less traveled.

Our wines hail from the Swartland, the hilly, coastal, hub of SA's offbeat and progressive wine industry, where we focus on crafting fairly produced wines that punch far above their weight and create a difference in the lives of the laborers who live & work on South Africa's wine farms.
